

Allied Health Education Session

Allied Health & the Para Sport Pathway

Delivered in partnership with NSWIS Para Unit's Transition Program by Tom Chapman - Physiotherapist, Para Sport & Classification Advisor NSWIS & ACTAS

Charles Sturt University — Indoor Sports Centre, Bathurst Building 1220 on this map

Saturday 11th April 2026 1:00 - 2:00 PM* (1 hour of CPD for Allied Health attendees)

Who should attend:

Physiotherapists, Exercise Physiologists, Occupational Therapists, and all Allied Health professionals interested in learning about classification, pathways, and opportunities in Para sport.

What you'll learn:

- Understanding Para Sport classification & eligibility
- Role of Allied Health in the Para Sport pathway
- How to identify and refer potential Para athletes
- NSWIS Para Unit pathways and support programs
- Q&A with classification and pathway advisor

Register for the free Allied Health Education Session here:

<https://forms.office.com/r/GENexU7Tug>

If you can't make the 11th April but are interested in receiving education, please also fill out the registration form there is a section to request education for your practice/department*

Enquiries: Thomas.Chapman@paralympic.org.au | 0412 146 048

This event runs alongside the NSWIS Para Unit Transition Program being held on 10, 11th April 2026. If you have clients that you believe would be interested, please get them to register with NSWIS here NSWIS Para Unit Athlete Registration

